

WILD

AMAZING ANIMALS
IN A CHANGING WORLD

Squirrel Glider

Petaurus norfolcensis

[Secure VULNERABLE Endangered Extinct]

MELBOURNE MUSEUM

Victoria
The Place To Be

Animal type | Mammal

Environment | Dry forest

Size | 20 cm long body, 27 cm long tail

Diet | Omnivore

Did you know?

This animal is displayed with its Victorian Conservation status

They eat insects, tree gum,
sap, seeds, pollen and nectar

They can glide for up to 50 metres between trees

museumvictoria.com.au/wild